INVITED FOREIGN FACULTY

Prof Robert John Grimer MB BS, DSc, FRCS, FRCSEd(Orth) qualified from the Middlesex Hospital, London in 1976. He worked for Rodney Snerth, who 'did' the bone tumours in the Royal Orthopaedic Hospital in Birmingham. Since then, he has developed the orthopedic oncology service in Birmingham. His interests include long term outcomes & the management of pelvic sarcomas.

Prof Ajay Puri is a prof. of Surgical Oncology at Tata Memorial Centre and is the Chairman of the Indian Orthopaedic Association (Onco). He developed a low cost indigenous megaprosthesis that is now extensively used in India and other Asian and African nations and he specializes in biological reconstructions.

Dr. Wong Kwok Chuen MBChB, HKCOS, FHKAM, FRCSEd(Ortho) is an honorary clinical asst professor for the Orthopaedic Oncology, Dept. of Orthopaedics & Traumatology at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, Prince of Wales Hosp, Hong Kong. He is one of the pioneers who developed navigation technique & software for pelvic surgery & has done much work on GCT treatment.
